PINKERTON'S MEN.

There is more truth than poetry in the following from the Grass Valley Telegraph: At Albany, last Sunday, Pinkerton's men fired into a crowd and several were wounded. Pinkerton's men are a hired body of armed men who were put at Albany to overawe strikers, or to preserve railroad property. Pinkerton's men, as a body, is not known to the law. The organization is ready to fight for pay. At Albany there came near being a mob, and it is a wonder that the people generally did not turn out and tear those Pinkerton men limb from limb. We think all difficulties of the kind in which Pinkerton's men are employed can be easily regulated by the law. The police of cities can, as a rule, do all the protecting required for property. When the police fails then the body of the county can be called upon and if that fails the State will take a hand, and if the State cannot succeed the United States can be invoked, and the United States never fails. The Pinkerton business has no place in the regular order of things and the Pinkerton business can do no good. It is but irritation for the Pinkerton standing army to be sent to a place where there are difficulties. The Pinkerton presence violates all American ideas of law and liberty. The Pinkerton body is a standing army that acts always in behalf of those able to pay and never with regard to the right or justice which should rule. We are pleased to see that the Pinkerton men have been almost mobbed. Such institutions should be effectually put down, and they will be.

A CHRONIC GROWLER.

The Silver State says that owing to the stringency of the money market, the advance in silver has not yet helped the State of Nevada. A most remarkable piece of information, indeed! Has the stringency of the money market prevented the producers from finding a market for their metal at thirty-five cents an ounce more than was paid a couple of years ago? Has not that much more money been received in exchange for our principal mineral product? But perhaps the Silver State does not consider an increase of revenue to the miners to be a benefit to the State. Either that or it has maliciously determined to acknowledge no good results from the operation of the silver bill, because it was passed almost exclusively by Republican votes. The Winnemucca editor reminds us of the old whist player, a chronic growler, who when he held all of the thirteen trumps, complained because he held no leading cards.

Arid Lands.

Commissioner Guiff, of the General Land Office, has issued to Registers and Receivers of land offices a circular giving a recent opinion of the Attorney General which sustains the construction placed upon the law of 1888, known as the Arid Land law, by the Interior Department. Attention is directed to the department circular of August 5, 1889, in which they were instructed not to permit the entry of any part of the arid region which comes within the operation of the Act of October 2, 1888. "A. though, in any case," says the Commissioner, "there will not be at any time any discrimination of the land involved there in as a selection for a site or sites for reservoirs, canals or ditches for irrigating purposes, or as land thereby made susceptible of irrigation, that fact must not be considered as showing that the land is open to entry, as although not yet selected, it may be liable to such selection under said Act, which is held to withdraw all lands so liable for disposal. Absolute obedience of the order is enjoined."

Can Fix It Ourselves.

The N. Y. Mail and Express says: We have imported less than half a million ounces of silver since the price has risen 25 cents an ounce, and the London price has been forced up to the highest figure known in twelve years. It does not look as if we really needed another international conference about silver, when we can so easily settle the matter ourselves without foreign assistance.

There isn't much in a name. The Harmony club, of New York, composed of snobs and socialists, wound up its picnic a few days since with a row, in which the harmonious members pounded on another fearfully and nearly killed a policeman.

Chinese Masons.

Some of the papers in the State are in the habit of speaking of Chinamen who have died, as "members of the Masonic fraternity." This is a mistake. The secret organization, among the Chinese on this coast, which is supposed by many to be of a Masonic character, is nothing of the kind. It is exclusively a Mongolian order and no regular Mason would recognize any resemblance to Free and Accepted Masonry in any of its forms, insignia, emblems or ceremonies.

Big Water Suit.

The Bliss Water Suit, says the Central Nevada, comes before the District Court next month. Bliss claims, by right to water ditches, land, etc., the right to 20,000 inches of water flowing in the Humboldt river or its tributaries. The questions of dispute mainly involve priority of recorded water courses and the legality of the riparian law of the State.

THE RIDE INTO KENTUCKY.

A Traveler's Impressions of the Famous Blue Grass Region.

All the way from Washington till I struck the heart of Kentucky the farmer in me was unhappy; he saw hardly a rood of land that he would like to call his own. But that remnant of the wild man of the woods, which most of us still carry, saw much that delighted him, especially down the water river, where the rocks and the waters and the steep forest clad mountains were as wild and as savage as anything he had known in his early Darwinian ages. But when we emerged upon the banks of the Great Kanawha the man of the woods lost his interest and the man of the fields saw little that was comforting.

When we cross the line into Kentucky, I said, we shall see a change. But no, we did not. The farmer still groaned in spirit; no thrifty farms, no substantial homes, no neat villages, no good roads anywhere, but squalor and sterility on every hand. Nearly all the afternoon we rode through a country like the poorer parts of New England, unredeemed by anything like New England thrift. It was a country of coal, a very new country, geologically speaking, and the top soil did not seem to have had time to become deepened and enriched by vegetable mold.

Near sundown, as I glanced out of the window, I thought I began to see a change. Presently I was very sure I did. It began to appear in the more grassy character of the woods. Then I caught sight of peculiarly soft and uniform grassy patches here and there in the open. Then in a few moments more the train had fairly shot us into the edge of the blue grass region, and the farmer in me began to be on the alert. We had passed in a twinkling from a portion of the earth's surface which is new, which is of yesterday, to a portion which is of the oldest, from the carboniferous to the lower silurian. Here upon this lower silurian the earth that saw and nourished the great monsters and dragons was growing the delicate blue grass. It had taken all these millions upon millions of years to prepare the way for this little plant to grow to perfection.

I thought I had never seen fields and low hills look so soft in the twilight; they seemed clad in greenish gray fur. As we neared Mount Sterling how fat and smooth the land looked; what long, even, gently flowing lines against the fading western sky, broken here and there by herds of slowly grazing or else reposing and ruminating cattle! What peace and plenty it suggested! From a land raw and crude and bitter like unripe fruit we had suddenly been transported into the midst of one ripe and mellow with the fullness of time. It was sweet to look upon. I was seized with a strong desire to go forth and taste it by a stroll through it in the twilight. —John Burroughs in Century.

Father and Son.

The late Charles C. Waite, at one time proprietor of the old Sherman house, Chicago, and for many years a leading hotel keeper of New York city (being sole proprietor of the Brevoort house and part proprietor of the Windsor hotel), at his death left a son, Charles B. Waite, whom he fondly hoped would be his successor in business. The young man was a failure, however, as a hotel keeper and worse than a failure as a politician. His connection with other boodle aldermen in New York is well remembered and two or three years ago he left that city for California, where he has since led a desultory existence. For years the elder Waite employed as chef of the Brevoort house Eugene Mehl, who was very justly regarded as one of the most capable men that ever took charge of a kitchen and to whom Mr. Waite paid for many years the munificent salary of $8,000 per annum. Mr. Mehl is now the successful proprietor of the handsome Hotel Ryan, at St. Paul, Minn., and to his credit be it said, he has given employment to Charles B. Waite, who is now performing the duties of superintendent at the Hotel Ryan. —Hotel Reporter.

Beef Tea.

For my own use I prefer for its flavor and quality beef tea made in the following manner: Take a pound of the round of beef or any juicy lean part; cut it in small pieces, and putting it in a bowl pour over it one pint of cold water. Let it stand half an hour or more, as convenient; then put it in a broad basin, and as it begins to heat press the meat with the back of a silver or wooden spoon, until all the juices are expressed. If the water cooks away add a little from the teakettle, so as to have the same quantity when done. Season it with a little salt and pepper, if allowable, and heat as needed. I prefer this for use without straining. —Cor. Good Housekeeping.

He Laughed Too Soon.

A well dressed, ladylike looking woman entered a tramcar the other day with her little boy of about 8 years of age. On the conductor coming to collect the fares the lady handed her little son a half crown, he being nearer the door. The little fellow examined the coin carefully and then gave it to the conductor. Scarcely had the man returned the change than the youngster clapped his hands and looking at his mother exclaimed triumphantly: "Mamma, mamma, he has taken the bad half crown!" —London Tid Bits.

Booming the Show.

"Where's that living skeleton?" asked Hayseed. "Well, the fact is," said the showman confidentially, "he fell into the slot of that weighing machine this morning and we haven't got him out yet. If you'll come back to-morrow night I guess you can see him." —Chatter.

An Eye for Business.

Dr. Ford—May I ask why this refusal? Miss Millions—Certainly, doctor! You know my sister married a lawyer, so if I expect to get any of papa's money I must marry a lawyer also. —Munsey's Weekly.

Truckee Talk.

Republican, August 20th.

Twelve pieces of music have been engaged for the dedication ball on September 3d. There will be dancing both at Hord's hall and the rink, as one hall will not be large enough to hold the crowd.

The new hall of the K. of P. and F. & A. M. is now completed and furnished. It is a pretty hall and the furniture is tasty and substantial. It has a bright, cheerful look and the societies will feel at home there.

A Spaniard named Augusto Bassano who has been sick at Martis Creek for a few days past died to-day while some of his companions were bringing him to town to see a doctor. The man was a wood cutter by occupation.

Dr. Horde and family left Truckee last Monday, the doctor having accepted a position at the French Hospital at San Francisco.

Sherburn's auction house was burglarized last Sunday night, and a lot of jewelry and silk handkerchiefs were taken. Yesterday Constable Morrill observed some strangers trying to sell some handkerchiefs to the Indians and gathered in three individuals on the suspicion of their being the burglars. A search of their pockets caused surprising results. Each man had about two quarts of jewelry in his possession of all kinds and descriptions.

A man named L. Reichert got on train No. 1 at this place yesterday morning intending to go to Boca. He took a seat on the steps and when the train went around the sharp curve at Martis Creek the car gave a sudden lurch and Reichert was thrown off striking the ground with violence. The accident was reported at Truckee and the yard engine and a coach went down and picked him up. An examination showed a fracture of the leg at the ankle and a dislocation of the ankle. There were also serious cuts about the head and face.

The Nevada State Fair.

Lesson Advocate: In this issue of the Advocate may be found the advertisement of the Nevada State Fair for 1890, at Reno, September 22d to 27th, inclusive. It will be observed that the dates are the same as for the Eleventh District Fair at Quincy, which is a somewhat unfortunate arrangement for both. However, the Fair at Reno this year will doubtless eclipse all previous ones. The people of Nevada are awaking to the necessity of showing the nature and scope of her industries. Her great irrigation schemes will be benefited, by an exhibition of the products of her soil with the assistance of water, and her people should be, and are, alive to this fact. A fine race programme is presented, and many novel and attractive features.

Nebraska Fowls.

Several carloads of poultry comprising turkeys, geese, chickens and ducks, from Nebraska, have been taken west in the last few days to California. Why cannot fowls be raised on this coast as well and at as little cost as in Nebraska? Grain is as cheap here as there and the climate is as well adapted to the breeding of fowls as that of the Platte river valley.

The widow who is said to have exposed several married men for seeking other companions than their wives is reported to have left last evening for Reno with her purse tolerably well filled. —Carson Tribune.

She will find poor picking here. The married men of Reno ain't that kind of hairpins.

Number 1 arrived at 8 o'clock and number 3 at 8:45 last evening.

It was reported last night that W. W. Bishop was dying in San Francisco.

"LITTLE BO PEEP"

had lost her sheep and couldn't tell where to find them." So the old nursery rhyme says, and it goes on to bid her "Leave them alone and they'll come home and bring their tails behind them." All this may be true of lost sheep, but if you have lost your health you cannot afford to leave that alone. It will not come back of its own accord. Some people have the idea that they can get it back by "letting them go the way they came." Alas! too often the victims go to a consumptive grave. Codd very recently a cure for consumption, which is a universally acknowledged to be a curable affecting the lungs, and has been looked upon as miraculous, but now people are beginning to realize that the disease is not incurable. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure it if taken in time and given a fair trial. This world-renowned remedy will not make new lungs, but it will restore diseased ones to a healthy state when other means have failed. It is the most potent tonic, and a powerful blood purifier, blood-cleanser, and nutritive, or flesh builder known to medical science. For Coughs, Croup, Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, it is an unequalled remedy.

THE CHAUTAUQUANS

Nevada Youngsters Enjoy a Literary Treat.

GLENNBROOK, (Nev.) August 19. The Lake Tahoe Chautauqua Assembly continues to grow in numbers and enthusiasm. There have been several new arrivals from Carson and Reno, a delegation from Sacramento and tourists from various directions, while the people of Glenbrook are discovering more and more that there is something unusually good and attractive going on in the old deserted lumber mill. President W. A. Quangle, of Becker University, Kansas, has given a lecture upon Westminster Abbey, which has won a great deal of praise. Professor Virgil Pinckley of Cincinnati, drew a full house Friday evening to one of his eloquent entertainments, and sent the people away feeling that they had received more than their money's worth of instruction and fun. Rev. Seth Brown, of Los Angeles, has given three excellent lectures. Mrs. Sophia W. Knight, of Los Angeles, is presiding over the cooking school to the great satisfaction of all her pupils. Rev. Mr. Rice and Miss Washburn attract a large class of Bible students, and so the new assembly is well launched.

The natural charm of this spot grows upon the visitor with every day. The air is wonderfully clear and fine. There is no lingering fog or mist. The sunsets and sunrises are glorious. Directly east of Glenbrook rises Shakespere rock, 800 feet high. The sides are moderate, pine covered slopes till about half way up when suddenly a bare cliff rises with steep, precipitous front, quite after the fashion of Half-dome in Yosemite. On the western side is to be seen the head of the immortal poet, covered with laurel, his lofty brow bent thoughtfully and his calm eye looking off toward the lake. The likeness is really striking, and although the whole picture is a little hard to find, it is very satisfactory when discovered. This mountain is a favorite climb with everybody, and by following certain trails the summit is quite accessible. From it there is a magnificent view of all the surrounding country. One can count a hundred peaks near and distant, many of them snow covered. Lake Tahoe lies blue and beautiful below, with the mountain shadows resting on her breast.

There are three or four little steamers plying between Glenbrook and ports on the lake and pleasure parties are continually coming and going.

The future of the Tahoe region as a Chautauqua camp ground is assured. There is nothing more beautiful in the world than this mountain encircled lake, 6,000 feet above the ocean. Lake Tahoe will yet be the Geneva of America, crowded with tourists from every land.

Pioche Pickings

Record August 16

The settlers of the Mudity valley look for an uprising of the Indians there and also say that their herds of stock have shown no material increase in the last year due to the depredations of the Indians. The Indians are very aggressive and trouble is undoubtedly brewing to no good.

From John Roeder we learn that there are 33 men on the pay roll of the Southwestern Mining Company in El Dorado canyon in the Southern part of the county. The mines of the company are looking exceedingly well and that they are doing good is attested by the fact that they paid into the county treasury for bullion tax over $250 for the last quarter.

Geo. B. Warren has secured a contract for 40,000 bushels of coal. He left Wednesday with a load of men to start in burning the coal camp is five miles above Spring Valley, on a heavy timbered mountain. The company pays 14 cents a bushel when burned. Contract to haul the coal to town will be let as soon as the first pit is burned.

After the examination of the Raymond & Elly now being made by Prof. Maynard is flushed the water will be allowed to raise to the top of the level and nothing will be done on the water level until Prof. Maynard makes his report to the New York parties. Much depends on the report for the welfare of Pioche and we hope that it will be such a one that active operations will be resumed at the water level.

A Sick Elephant

Two of the best known Santa Cruz surgeons, Dr. Shearer and Sargent, performed an operation Sunday evening on the largest patient they ever had—the pet elephant with the Robinson show aged 100 years.

It had a large swelling in the stomach, which was supposed to be an abscess, but which proved to be a rupture. The large beast, while suffering great pain, behaved with the greatest intelligence and gentleness, never trying to injure those trying to relieve her sufferings. The animal has been with Robinson fifty years. It is valued at several thousand dollars. It is supposed to be the first elephant ever operated on in this country.

FEARFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Two Trains Wrecked and Five Men Killed—Conductor Kingsley Stays With the Train at the Cost of His Life.

The following is the telegraphic report from Truckee of the fearful railroad accident near the Summit yesterday.

This morning (Friday) at 3:25 on the east-bound freight train No. 19 reached Summit the engines were uncoupled and sent up the track to pick up some cars. The rest of the train consisting of 18 cars, was left on the track with the train, and it is supposed that the air leaked out, releasing the brakes and the train started down the track.

The brakemen were ahead with the engines.

Conductor Kingsley saw the cars move and he ran and climbed on the now fast moving train and tried to hold it with the hand brakes. In this he was unsuccessful.

The grade was heavy, and the momentum increased until they were moving at a fearful rate.

At Cascade freight train No. 23 was just pulling into the siding, when the wild cars came tearing down the track at 100 miles an hour.

The engines of 23 had just passed the switch, and the flying cars struck the train near the center.

The wreck was terrible, the cars being piled up as high as the telegraph poles.

The telegraph office alongside the siding was knocked all to pieces.

The operator was in bed. The bed was broken to bits and the operator was knocked down the hill, but escaped with a few scratches.

Conductor Kingsley heroically stayed with his train, and was killed—crushed all out of shape.

No. 10 piled on top of No. 23, buying Conductor Connelly and brakemen Beaver and Yerra in the wreck, killing them.

The bodies have been removed and the body of a man—a stranger—who was riding on No. 23.

The Oldest Drummer.

The oldest traveling man in the country, M. J. C. Page, started out in 1852 with half a dozen shoes in an old fashioned handbag. He sought his first order from a former employer in Montpelier, Vt., who listened to the youthful and ardent commercial traveler and then exclaimed:

"Why, boy, do you think you can sell shoes by samples?" The youth thought he could. After a mature deliberation the merchant remarked: "Well, Joel, I don't believe you will deserve me, you can send me a box of those shoes. To any one who has not watched the rapid increase in the number of commercial travelers of all classes every year (his story must prove interesting). That a vocation employing hundreds of thousands of persons every year, and with hundreds of millions of dollars invested, could grow up during one man's life time almost surpasses belief, says the Kansas City Times. The business has grown from the single venturesome Yankee boy of 1852 to 200,000 in 1890. It is expected the present census will swell the number to fully 400,000.

Narrow Escape of No. 1

The story told by the passengers on No. 1 last night conforms in nearly every particular with the telegraphic report of the wreck near the Summit, with the addition of No. 1's narrow escape from being destroyed in the place of the freight with which the runaway train collided. The freight was pulling on to a sidetrack to make way for No. 1, when the wild train struck her, wrecking and of course stopping them both. A few minutes later and the main track would have been clear and the runaway train would have struck the passenger, which would have been dashed to atoms and probably most of the passengers killed or wounded. It was bad enough as it was, but it would have been far more disastrous to human life had the wrecked freight been wholly on the sidetrack.

THE MANHATTAN

Insurance Company.

Assets, $12,000,000.

The history of the past has proven beyond a question that an endowment policy in a life insurance company is a much.

BETTER INVESTMENT

than a savings bank FIRST, because it is very much safer—the law of the State of New York requires every life insurance company to keep a

Reserve in First-Class Securities

Equal to its liabilities dollar for dollar, SECOND, in case of death while making these small deposits the life insurance company will pay just when most needed by the family, the Full Amount

Of the sum insured amounting to 10, 20, or even 50 times as much as has been deposited, or on the

Return Premium

Plan of the MANHATTAN, they would do even more than this for they would at death pay the face of the policy and in addition all the deposits (premiums) paid while the savings bank would only return the amounts actually deposited with interest. Who would not purchase a valuable piece of property—a farm for example—worth $10,000, if he could have twenty years to pay for it, in small sums of $300 per annum with interest on deferred payments and without any tax on it? The $300 per year being only 3 per cent of the $10,000—a sum not much greater than that paid annually for taxes on property in hand, of the same cost and especially if he could have the further conditions specified in the contract, let that if he dies while making these payments—even after one only has been made—

No Further Payments Shall be Required

And the full title in fee simple to the entire farm shall at once be given to his family, and 2d, that if at any time after the three years during the twenty years he shall be unable to continue the payments and from sickness or any misfortune, that then he could discontinue any further payments and have in fee simple such portions of the farm as he has paid for thus if one fourth of the payments had been made he would own one separate fourth of the farm, etc., and at the same time the farm be entirely free from all claims of creditors, under all circumstances, not even to be reached by writ of execution or attachment issued by any court, while if living to the end of the twenty years and the annual payments have been made, the

Entire Property in Fee Simple is secured. Now the MANHATTAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY offers all this and more, for instead of offering LAND on these terms which is often eaten up by legal expenses and fees in case of the death of the purchaser or swallowed up by a mortgage given to secure deferred payments, thus losing the whole amount paid in and leaving the family destitute, or dependent, it offers a Specific Bond Secured by Millions of First-Class Securities.

Agreeing to pay MONEY on the same terms and conditions as above—the cost per year varying at different ages, but otherwise substantially the same terms as above stated, while the sum to be paid at the end of twenty years will be increased by dividends and compounded interest for the full term, thus making the investment a very PROFITABLE and ADVANTAGEOUS one. Inquiries concerning the bonds of this company will receive prompt reply if addressed to

Primary Election

—Of the People on—

SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1890,

For the purpose of electing delegates to the said
State Convention the Primary Election to be carried out in compliance with the laws of the State and the instructions of this Committee.The following test will be required of each and every voter at the said Primary Elections:"I am a citizen of this State and will support the nominees of the Republican party."The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:Resolved, That this committee reaffirms the State and National Republican platform of 1888, including the declaration that "the Republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money" and that it "condemns all efforts to monopolize silver."Resolved, That the persistent neglect of Secretary Windsor to increase the coinage of silver to the maximum of four million dollars per month, coupled with his attempt to influence Congress to pass legislation so as to perpetuate silver demonetization, is a shameful violation of the silver platform of the National Republican platform, an attack upon the rights and interests of the miners, farmers and workers of the land, and an act of party perfidy that should call for his retirement from the councils of an Administration which is obliged to help and not to hinder the redemption of silver.Resolved, That the Republican party of this State is in favor of free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver; that it is this principle as a test of party faith and a test of party allegiance; that it will permit of no abandonment or modification of this doctrine; that let whoever will prove recrudescent to this principle of bimetalism, it will remain steadfast thereto, and that it invites all voters in Nevada who favor the repeal of the infamous international law of 1875 by which silver was debased and who desire the establishment of free and unlimited coinage as the law of the United States of America, to join in electing delegates to a Republican State Convention.
